2. Features surveyed:

In response to an opinion survey conducted by NEITA (National Excellence in Teaching Awards) and the Australian Scholarships Group (ASG), award-winning teachers speak openly about learning, teaching, and parent involvement in their children’s education.

3. Insights gained:

Teachers offer insights into the roles parents need to play to help their children make the best of their abilities. Most of all, teachers want parents to work in partnership with them.

Hot Chocolates

- Hot Chocolates will commence in Week 2, on a Monday.
- Children can purchase their hot chocolate for $2.00 during the first break in the gym.

REMINDER: School Uniform:

The reason for our school uniform is to ensure that our children are identified as students who belong to the community of St. Francis Xavier. When some students continually ignore aspects of the uniform policy, this causes resentment and disharmony for other students and families. I ask parents to be encouraging and supportive in your role so that the school uniform is respected and adhered to and that there is a strong level of equality and fairness in the management of the uniform protocol.

- Full winter uniform may be worn from Day 1 of Term 2.
- For the first 2 weeks of Term 2 we will be in a transition phase for Uniform. Children are permitted to be in either Summer or Winter Uniform.
- From Monday 3rd May (Week 3) all children are expected to be in Winter Uniform.

School Performances in 2021

At this stage we are planning for School Performances to be videoed and shared with families via SeeSaw and our Social Media Channels. We are hoping that the children will be able to at least perform to a school audience. COVID 19 density restrictions continue to affect our ability to have parents onsite in large numbers. Should these requirements for schools change we will amend our arrangements appropriately.

THIS WEEK'S GOSPEL - Sunday 16th May 2021

THE ASCENSION OF THE LORD YEAR B

Gospel

Mk 16:15-20

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark

The Lord Jesus was taken into heaven and is seated at the right hand of God

Jesus showed himself to the Eleven and said to them, 'Go out to the whole world; proclaim the Good News to all creation. He who believes and is baptised is saved; he who does not believe will be condemned. These are the signs that will be associated with believers: in my name they will cast out devils; they will have the gift of tongues; they will pick up snakes in their hands, and be unharmed should they drink deadly poison; they will lay their hands on the sick, who will recover.'

And so the Lord Jesus, after he had spoken to them, was taken up into heaven: there at the right hand of God he took his place, while they, going out, preached everywhere, the Lord working with them and confirming the word by the signs that accompanied it.

The Gospel of the Lord

REFLECTION by Greg Sunter

Gospel Reflection

This passage makes up the concluding verses of the Gospel of Mark. Actually, literary criticism of the Mark gospel suggests that the original gospel ended at 16:8 with the women fleeing from the empty tomb in fear. Verses 9-20 appear to be a later addition to the gospel. The community in which this gospel was written expected Jesus to return within their lifetime and so the dramatic and suspenseful conclusion of the gospel at the discovery of the empty tomb makes perfect sense. However, it soon became apparent that Jesus' return was not going to come as soon as the believers had hoped and so the post-resurrection appearances and the commissioning to continue on with Jesus' work became much more important.

If we were to read this passage literally, we would believe that to be a Christian one had to be able to perform exorcisms, speak in tongues, handle snakes, drink poison and heal by touch. If this were literally true, I guess there wouldn't be too many Christians around today! Rather, the purpose of the passage is that Jesus sends his followers out 'to the whole world' to continue his ministry. It is the 'whole world' to which they are sent; not just their cosy little corner of the world but the whole world. It's what Christian people for the last 2,000 years have been called to do: continue Jesus' ministry to the whole world. It's what each and every one of us is called to do today: 'proclaim the Good News to all creation'. That doesn't mean standing on street corners with a Bible in our hands but it means proclaiming the Good News through our everyday actions and by being open and honest about our faith. It means treating all people as Jesus would.

Called to action through Gospel values and Mercy tradition we will enrich thinking, expand horizons and pursue excellence!

Living the Gospel – Proclaim Good News

Francis of Assisi is credited with saying, 'Preach the gospel at all times and when necessary, use words!' In every interaction we have we say so much about who we are, what we think of the other person and what we believe – even without opening our mouth. Our actions and attitudes proclaim our beliefs more powerfully than our words ever do. If we claim to be concerned about justice and yet behave unjustly then it is our actions, not our words, that will be heard! When we are called to 'proclaim the Good News' we are called to do this first and foremost in action.

Scriptural context – Acts

Throughout this Easter season, the first reading in the Sunday liturgy is taken from the Acts of the Apostles and so both the first and second readings come from the New Testament. (Normally, the First Reading is taken from the Old Testament.) This week's first reading account of the Ascension is the very beginning of the book of Acts. This book and the Gospel of Luke are now recognised as being by the same author. The book of Acts records the events involving the followers of Jesus after his death and the growth of communities of believers who sought to follow Jesus' ways.

Different View – Snake handlers and Faith healers

There are certainly Christians who interpret literally Jesus' description of the signs that will be associated with believers. We have all seen images of old Revivalist meetings where people were called forth to be healed by touch and have evil spirits driven from them. Much of this practice can be traced to this week's gospel. The many evangelical churches and the televangelists who dominate our early morning television screens operate out of this tradition and generally have a very literal interpretation of scripture. It is based in a belief that God acts in the world through miraculous intervention rather than through the slow and steady presence of individuals like you and me.

A beginning point for discussion of this week's Gospel with children:

- Q. Why do you think the gospel writer described the miraculous 'signs that will be associated with believers'?
- Q. What is the significance of Jesus commissioning the disciples immediately before his ascension?
- Q. How is it possible to be a proclaimer of the Good News today?
- Q. How can our actions towards others proclaim our beliefs?
- Q. Who do you know who really lives their beliefs and in that way proclaims the Good News?

Greg Sunter has worked in Catholic Education (Brisbane) for many years, most recently as a member of the Religious Education team and Mission and Formation team. He has extensive experience of praying with young people and forming others to lead prayer with young people. He is the author of books on adolescent faith, is a regular speaker at youth and evangelisation conferences, and is a retreat and reflection facilitator and presenter. His areas of interest include religious education, theology, scripture, spirituality, Catholic ethos, prayer, and ministry with young people.

National Reconciliation Week

As we approach National Reconciliation Week here is just a brief understanding of its significance
What is National Reconciliation week? 27th May- 3rd June
National Reconciliation Week (NRW) is a time for all Australians to learn about our shared histories, cultures, and achievements, and to explore how each of us can contribute to achieving reconciliation in Australia.

The dates for NRW remain the same each year; 27th May to 3rd June. These dates commemorate two significant milestones in the reconciliation journey— the successful 1967 referendum, and the High Court Mabo decision respectively.

Reconciliation must live in the hearts, minds and actions of all Australians as we move forward, creating a nation strengthened by respectful relationships between the wider Australian community, and Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples.

Called to action through Gospel values and Mercy tradition we will enrich thinking, expand horizons and pursue excellence!

Divisional Cross Country

Last Friday we had 14 students represent SFX at the Divisional Cross Country held at Ballarat High School. A magnificent (albeit a touch chilly) day was had by all. Our strong squad of runners were tested on the 2km/3km courses, where 12 of our students qualified to compete at Regionals in Warrnambool at the end of the month. All of our runners finished within the first 14 in their events and should be extremely proud of their efforts.
